

ICCV23

PARIS

The Logistics Team of the International Conference on Computer Vision (ICCV 2023) which was held in Paris, France, October 2nd - 6th 2023, certifies that Xiang JI has been selected as a student volunteer and completed up to 10 hours of logistics support on site for different tasks such as: registration & badge printing, workshops meeting rooms management, plenary and posters sessions support.

We would like to thank them for being reliable and helpful on the tasks they have been assigned to.
